Eric Maddox is the man who spearheaded the mission to find the missing Iraqi dictator, Saddam Hussein and bring him to justice. Army Staff Sergeant Eric Maddox will tell the entire incredible story on November 5th. A gripping true tale of perseverance and expert military intelligence gathering without the use of torture. Capturing Saddam chronicles the hunt for Saddam Hussein in fascinating detail, shedding light on one of the most amazing operations of the War in Iraq—and one of the most intensive manhunts in history—ranging from the U.S. Army's operations center in Baghdad to Saddam's cramped and dusty spider hole in Tikrit.
